

Co-Packing Guide

How to plan your custom co-packing project with us!

1. Determine what kind of raw ingredient you need packaged. We are currently equipped with 10 vertical form fill seal machines that accommodate various types of ingredients. You can send us the raw ingredients directly, or we can help you source them!

- Granules (Peppercorns, Panko, Coriander Seeds, etc.)
- Powders (Flour, Chili Powder, Ground Cumin, etc.)

2. Identify the weight each package needs to be, and let us know how many units you need. We'll calculate this information to plan a production schedule.

- Our machines run all ingredients with accuracy within .1 grams.
- Household measurements vary in weight by raw ingredient. We conduct 10 independent weight tests on each item to ensure accuracy.

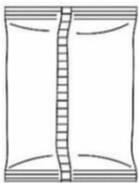

3. Pick your film type. We stock a variety of film sizes and colors for you to choose from. Our current stock film is a 2 mil bi-layer laminated film composed of BOPP and CPP, available in:

- Clear/Transparent
- Your own pre-printed film (must be a laminated 2+ layer film)
- Tan
- We can help you design & source your own custom film design

4. Decide if you need printing. Our machines are equipped with printers that can print anything from lot codes to full images including logos and barcodes, or a combination of both. Black ink only.

- Lot code
- Text, including product name, measurement, etc.
- Images including logos, barcodes, etc.
- 2" wide x 1" tall print area

5. Pick your bag style and size:
